Your personal data are processed for the following purposes:

- to respond to your request for technical support;
- to fulfil the obligations arising from a contract or to respond, before or after executing the contract, to your specific requests;
- to fulfil administrative, accounting, civil law and tax obligations, regulations, EU and/or non-EU laws;

These recipients, where they process data on behalf of our Company, will be designated as data processors under an appropriate contract or other legal document.

Transfer of personal data to third countries and/or International organisations

Your personal data will not be transferred to non-EU third countries.

Rights of the data subject

The Data Subject has the right to ask the Joint Data Controllers for access to his/her personal data and to correct them if inaccurate, delete them, or restrict their processing where the conditions are met to do so, or to object to their processing for legitimate interests pursued by the Joint Data Controllers, together with the right to portability for any data provided personally, only if subject to automated processing based on consent or based on a contract, as well as the right to request a copy of the key content of the agreement between the Joint Data Controllers. The Data Subject also has the right to withdraw his/her consent for the processing purposes that require it, without prejudice to the lawfulness of any processing carried out before said consent was withdrawn.
